

On February 25 through 27 the Bernard & Alice Selevan Religious School and Martin J. Gottlieb Day School Kitah Alef classes will participate in a service known as “Consecration” or “Haggigat HaSiddur (receiving one’s prayerbook)”. This ceremony acknowledges and celebrates the beginning of one’s Jewish educational journey.

*WHAT ARE LEAGRAMS?

LEAGRAMS are personal messages congratulating our consecrants. These messages are printed on individual sheets of Leagram stationery and beautifully bound together in a book which the consecrant will receive as part of Consecration Day.

Please go to jjsisterhood.com/leagrams and make your payment by Monday, February 21, 2022
Copies of this page are available in the Center office for cash or check payments.
 (Due to the process of binding the leagrams, orders cannot be accepted beyond this deadline)
